

Robert "Bob" BRASS

BRASS, Robert "Bob"

92, of St. Petersburg, widower of Helen (Rogers) Brass, passed away Tuesday, June 14, 2016 surrounded by family. A long time St. Petersburg resident, Bob was born in Uniontown, PA. A veteran; he served during WWII as a Marine. He loved the outdoors and volunteered in the national parks with his wife Helen. He was an avid pilot, fisherman, and scuba driver. That love for nature lives on through his three children, Wayne, Jim, and Susan; his six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Published in the Tampa Bay Times on June 19, 2016